CUPE 1004 & 1936 PHS Bargaining Update #1

The Joint Union Bargaining Committee met with the Employer on September 15 and 16 where CUPE 1004 & 1936 and the Employer exchanged bargaining proposals.

These key issues for CUPE members in both units are:

- Job Security
- Wage & Term
- Benefits
- Extended Health
- Seniority
- Job Postings
- Hours of Work
- Apprenticeships
- Civil & Human Rights
- Leaves & Vacations

We still have a considerable amount of work ahead of us.

Bargaining will continue on October 27 & 28 and November 2 – 4, 2016.

The collective agreement for CUPE 1004 members at the PHS expired on March 31, 2015. CUPE 1936 is bargaining for a first collective agreement. The Locals elected their respective bargaining committees in 2015, and since that time we have been meeting on a regular basis to develop a deep knowledge of our needs and the collective agreement. The committee is made up of a diverse group of dedicated members representing a wide range of PHS projects.
