CUPE 1004, representing workers at the Capilano Students' Union, would like to offer our solidarity and support to MoveUP members now on strike at Capilano University.

The work your members do is crucial – Capilano University students, faculty, and your fellow workers depend on you every day. We know that taking this job action was a difficult choice, but one that was well warranted. We applaud your resolve to get the fair deal you deserve.

MoveUP members deserve a collective agreement that recognizes the contributions they make to our campuses, allows them to continue working and living in the communities they serve, and allows them to have a healthy work-life balance.

Please know that CUPE 1004 members, here at Capilano University and across the lower Mainland, and CUPE's over 715,000 members across Canada are standing with you.

In Solidarity,

Scott McIntosh
CUPE 1004 President
